

30-Second Amateur Commercial Contest Photograph, Video and Publicity Release Form

The Commercial Contest Participant (hereafter referred to as Applicant) understands that National Entrepreneur Center, the judges, as well as any and all of the former’s successors, assigns, promotional agents, co-sponsors, insurers, principals, representatives, affiliates, franchisors, subsidiaries, participants, officers, directors, agents, shareholders, independent contractors, managers, supervisors, employees and agents (collectively the “Releasees”), are under no obligation to provide any advice or service to the Applicant. The views expressed by the Releasees are their own and not those of any other person or entity. The Releases are held harmless by Applicant, its owners, officers, employees and agents and shall not be subject to any action arising from Applicant’s participation in this Competition.

The Applicant, its owners, officers, employees and agents, grant permission to National Entrepreneur Center to publicize their name(s), logo, and brief description of their business and commercial for marketing or other purposes.

The Applicant agrees that the following statements are true and applicable (please initial).

___ The Applicant has obtained all applicable licensing rights, and can provide proof of such if requested, for any copyrighted media/music used in the commercial.

___ The Applicant has received, read and agrees to all the Contest Rules provided prior to submitting the commercial/video.

___ The Applicant certifies that they are a legitimate owner or representative of the subject company for whom the commercial was created.

___ The Applicant has read and agrees to this Photograph, Video & Publicity Release Form.
